

FFWPU and CARP Paraguay holds DP seminar for Sustainable Development

Dong Mo Shin
March 31, 2016

FFWPU Paraguay: From March 14 to 31, 2016, Education department of FFWPU and CARP Paraguay held a successful seminar for the sustainable development of the North and South Americas. The theme for the seminar was “We are sons of filial piety of the True Parents”

During the seminar which was held at in Il Yan Won Pantanal, participants studied Divine Principle, True Parents’ words and life course, Unification Thought and victory over communism. They experienced new understanding life.

They also participated in service for peace in the Indian port, hope community. And they also experienced the nature closely in port Leda such as fishing, horse riding, hiking and encounter with nature.

