

Universal Peace Academy Cadets, Will Be Lights that Illuminate the Dark World

Hak Ja Han

March 4, 2013

First Entrance Ceremony of the Universal Peace Academy (UPA)

Main Chapel of Cheongshim Graduate School of Theology at Chung Pyung, Korea

I sincerely welcome all forty-three Universal Peace Academy cadets.

In the next five years, starting today, you will substantially know the truth and faith in all its aspects. That experience will assist you in your life in fulfilling your mission of becoming the light for all seven billion people of this world.

150 years ago, the great poet Tagore of India wrote a beautiful poem about Korea. He said that Korea would become the light of humankind. He spoke highly of Korea, saying that it would emerge as the light of the East to illuminate the world. Such history will be accomplished through you in this time. Heaven blessed Korea, as Korea as God's homeland through the True Parents of Heaven, Humankind, and Humankind. It should not remain as words. The current leaders and people in charge have the mission to put their faith into action.

I said that the Republic of Korea must become God's homeland without fail in 2020. But will it happen just because I say it? For it to happen, you must take action. You have to move. All of you should be reborn in the truth and God's word and become the light of the world. Do you understand?

All cadets joining the Academy today will indeed record their names on the first page of this history.

For how long heaven and humankind had looked forward to this day? I hope that you can feel that in your lives as you study and lead your lives. Heaven will help you.

You must not be indebted to heaven or to humankind. Your youth and passion shall be the fertilizer in building Cheon Il Guk. You will become the pillars needed to create Cheon Il Guk.

Our goal is clear. I have raised you to a position where you will bear the first fruits in completing providence to the day you draw your last breath and build the new era and history of Cheon Il Guk.

Isn't this something you should be grateful for?

Please move enthusiastically as you promised and pledged just now.

Who, then, will be the ones joining you? The True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind shall always be with you. What did I say will happen when you go somewhere?

You will become the light. What I am saying is that you will illuminate the dark world. Do you understand? Will you properly grow in this way? So, can I now conclude my speech with a grateful heart towards our Heavenly Parent, right?