Western Cultural Isolation Is Not Healthy

A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water." John 4:7-15

God did not create the world for the sake of power, glory or wealth. Being absolute, unchanging and eternal, and being the origin of all existence, He has no particular need for these things, as He already has them in abundance.

However, it would not be right to think that God has fulfilled all His desires. God exists as the embodiment of true love. God needs a partner in order to experience love, just as we do. Love can be experienced only when there is a "subject and object" relationship. No being can experience love in isolation, all by itself.

God created human beings to give and receive love freely in relationship with Him. We were made to be the true object of the love of God. He created us as His sons and daughters. He is the True Parent of humankind. SMM, Development of Civilization Seen from the Viewpoint of the Principle, August 31, 1996

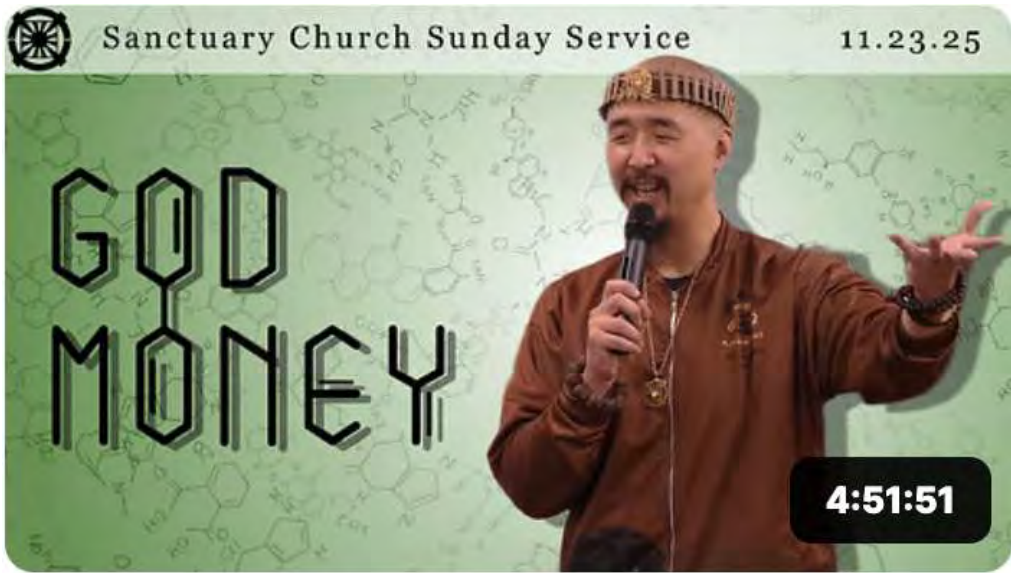

Hello,

It was a wonderful surprise to have the 2nd King and Queen return from Asia and give the Sunday service at the Welcome Center in Chung Pyung, Tennessee. Much of Hyung Jin Nim's sermon focused on comparing trends in Asia with those in America.

In South Korea, the greatest promoters of leftism/wokism are the Mega Churches. Women dominate in Protestantism, so it became a matriarchy. Their ideal is kindness, but men are needed to keep away the wolves.

Most of America rejected the Father and embraced free sex. How is that working out? Nearly 30% of women in America have mental health problems, with younger women having even higher rates. The West brought in groups who are hardcore tribal-oriented, who intend to conquer, not assimilate.

In Taiwan, there are "religious malls," where you can buy paper Air Conditioners, Mercedes Benzes, Lui Vuitton bags, to burn for your ancestors. August was "hungry ghost" month where you can offer a big feast for an ancestor in hell.

Victor Moon is witnessing to b-boy rebels in Taiwan. They are not materialists. They believe in spirits. Pagans at least believe in the reality of spirit world. Young people at the Sanctuary Academy are doing 2 hours of meditation training each morning.

God can even use evil kings to accomplish His will. They were doing prayer training 7 times a day. The day after the 40 day prayer condition, Hak Ja Han was arrested.

The Chinese people and Koreans are 80% the same. Their language shares the many of the same phrases, colloquialisms, and grammar. Hangul was developed in the 1600s. In True Father's writings there are so many Chinese characters. Hyung Jin Nim says to Korean brothers and sisters, "don't hate Chinese, you even have the same last names." For instance, 15% of Koreans, or more than 7 million, have "Lee" as their surname. 93 million Chinese have "Lee" as their last name. The famous martial artist Bruce Lee came from Hong Kong.

The Chinese people are oppressed by Communism, but also prepared, just like Korea. When China embraces Father as the returning Christ, they won't have to reject their ancestors. They will become greater than America. Christ did not come only for the chosen people. He came for all people.

Chinese culture is obsessed with money. Hyung Jin Nim speaks to Taiwanese contacts about "Heaven's Money," which is eternal. China is the land of the dragon, which is a combination of other animals. The yellow dragon represents the "yellow Emperor."

Father's mother had a dream (moshi) while she was pregnant where 2 white dragons (Yong) came out, signifying that a world-changing person would be born. When he was 8, his mother told father he would have a big responsibility. She had a vision of 2 golden dragons bowing to her womb. His grandfather has a vision of 2 dragons coming out of the ocean to bow to him. These prophecies are being fulfilled now, for when Father's teaching will enter China.

In the east, gifted artists are designated as a "living national treasure." With the wood sculptures being commissioned it will be the first time we will have this level of artistry about True Father's life. Hyung Jin Nim has made 12 pieces of arts about True Father's life.

He showed the True Love Hormone chart. It shows give-and-receive action. He grew up with abusive older brothers and crazy sisters. No parents around, since they were dedicating the vast majority of their time for the public good. Church members were scared to say anything even though they saw unacceptable things happening. Hyung Jin Nim learned firsthand about the neurotic anxiety personalities of women and the avoidant personalities of men.

If you have problems in your marriage, it's probably not a head or a heart problem. It is a spine problem. Lab rats, rabbits and field mice are promiscuous. Since there are so many larger predators, they have to reproduce quickly to survive. But, if you give them a shot of vasopressin, they immediately become faithful to one partner.

Dopamine, the pleasure hormone, enters quickly and leaves quickly. Many young men have erectile dysfunction because they have been masturbating with porn which gives them a temporary shot of dopamine, often followed by guilt and shame, because it leads nowhere. Social media is built on dopamine "likes" and "hits." We have a dopamine-addicted culture where many live isolated lives.

In Asia, there are many horrible marriages, with a lot of nagging and even beating, but they almost never divorce, because they have tribal cultural values that shame those who divorce.

Vasopressin is a trust hormone. Oxytocin is connected with feelings and connection. Since the beginning of time, men have had to take on the role of hunters. They don't want to talk. Instead, they focus on getting things done, pushing away emotion and talking to beat off predators and invaders. Women, with their nervous personality, must connect with other women to feel balanced.

When a threat appears, the digestive system (and immune system) shuts down, to devote blood to muscles and the brain, to fight or flight, fawning or freeze. After a woman fights with her husband, she gets a cold.

The first 6 months of a romantic relationship are often filled with excitement and total focus on one another, but soon afterwards, many reach a "dopamine cliff." They may even begin to feel attraction to others. The enraptured summer love often ends in the fall, with worrying about the future.

Godly families are not centered on temporary dopamine highs. Beyond the amount needed to live, money can buy pleasure, girls, and many addictions, but not meaning and connection. God gave man more vasopressin receptors. God gave women more oxytocin receptors. In men vasopressin receptors must be opened first for the oxytocin receptors to open.

Material items only give you temporary dopamine. Women seek safety and connection. In the tribal model, the women communicated with each other. But in modern nuclear families, many women are isolated, with fewer female friends and relatives to talk with. For many men, safety is cowardice because they have to face predators approaching from the outside. When they return home, men seek peace.

The Bible says store up your treasures in heaven. This is "God's money." Only strong relationships can produce that. Hyung Jin Nim advised women to spend time with their husbands, while he is fixing the motorcycle, or go camping or fishing together. Then he feels appreciated, respected. His "spine" believes you did that together.

When a woman criticizes her husband, that causes him to have higher cortisol, to a shorter life, more inflammation and sicknesses. Bonding together leads to more trust. Vasopressin is the trust hormone, that predicts longer relationships.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
